

Your Mid-Week

Children's Program

*What should a Midweek Program for the children of YOUR church and community look like? Is there one format you can follow and experience success? How much energy does it really take to start? What if the numbers are not there after the first year - is it worth it to continue? Come and join in a conversation and begin to consider what a ministry found in sharing a meal and conversation with children can look like. A light dinner will be provided.
